Don't most of us try to avoid long-winded talkers-and long-wind d writers?

I try in these articles to keep out of the second class. I have just written a book which contains probably the largest num-ber of "chapters" ever compressed into 160 pages. The McCumber protective tariff bill, destined as the principal issue in the November elections, will be passed by the Senate within three weeks, it was declared today by eaders of all factions.

The combined efforts of Republican and Democratic leaders, however, to adopt an agreement for passage of the bill August 17 faced defeat at the hands of insurgents, led by Senator Lenroot (Republican) of Wisconsin.
